The Third Grade Teachers

Sincerely,

Assignments on the first day of school.

Please bring both completed book with directions of how to complete them. You will see the reader response for both the non-fiction and fiction book at their level (something they can read with little support from adults). In this assignment, you will require your student to read one non-fiction and one fiction reading, which is regularly done in third grade.

We hope this assignment will help prepare your student to write a response to the upcoming school year. We would like them to complete a summer reading assignment.

We are so excited to meet your students! To help prepare your third grader for

Dear Incoming Third Grade Parents,
