On Thursday, December 23rd, Monmouth Junction school will hold our next school-wide spirit day.

It is going to be PAJAMA DAY!

Students can come to school dressed comfy and cozy.

Stuffed animals should be left at home and students still need to wear sneakers that day. However, we are looking forward to being cozy in our PJ’s as we get ready for Winter Break.

As a reminder pajamas should be appropriate for school and the weather.