2-3 – The Middle Colonies- Pages 49-51

Essential Question: Why did people from many nations settle in the middle colonies?

Main Idea 1:
The English created New York and New Jersey from former Dutch territory.

New York
• __________ founded New __________ in 1613 as __________ trading post
• New __________ was center of __________ trade
• Peter Stuyvesant led the __________ from 1647-1664
• __________ captured colony in __________ and renamed it __________

New Jersey
• __________ take control in __________
• The __________ occupied land between the __________ and __________ rivers
• Had __________ population, including __________, Swedes, Finns, and __________

Main Idea 2:
William Penn established the colony of Pennsylvania.

• Society of __________, or __________, was one of largest __________ groups in New __________
• __________, who supported __________ and __________ tolerance, were __________
• __________ __________ founded __________, a larger colony for __________ that provided a safe home.
• __________ limited his __________, established an elected __________, and promised __________ freedom to all __________.
Main Idea 3:
The economy of the middle colonies was supported by trade and staple crops.

- The ___________ colonies different from the ___________ and ___________ colonies.
  - Generous land ___________ and religious ___________ brought ___________ to the ___________ colonies.
- Middle colonies had good ___________ and rich ___________ to grow ___________ crops, crops that are always ___________.
- The ___________ crops in the middle ___________ were ___________, oats, and ___________.
- There were ___________, in the middle colonies.
- The ___________ needs of the ___________ colonies were ___________ met with ___________ servents.
- Trade to ___________ and the West ___________ was important to the economy of ___________.

Women’s Contributions

- Ran ___________ and businesses, such as clothing ___________, drugstores, and ___________.
- Some were ___________ and midwives.
- ___________ worked primarily in the ___________.
- Married women managed ___________ and raised ___________.

Map of Middle Colonies