C. Old Business

1. none

D. New Business

3. Mrs. Conway reviewed the wellness goals that were identified from the wellness survey conducted in January. All were in favor of promoting Sexual Health curriculum in a Google classroom, healthy eating tips distributed in the weekly newsletter, continued professional development in social and emotion learning through the Youth Mental Health First Aid trainings, and continued work with staff in the VEBA wellness classes. Mr. Camacho also mentioned that ASB may be interested in piloting a temporary garden this year. Mrs. Conway will complete the Wellness survey due March 1st with this information.

4. Chloe Pardo was presented as a potential new SSC student. Mr. Camacho made a motion to approve Chloe as a new member. Mr. Bailow seconded and all were in favor.

5. Mrs. Conway provided a copy of last year's Single Plan for Student Achievement (SPSA) to the SSC members along with a copy of the SPSA survey for each member. The SSC carried a discussion of item 1 (Maximizing Instructional Time) as an example of how to fill out the remainder of the survey. SSC members will take the survey with them and complete their portion by Thursday, 3/8/2018, and Mrs. Conway will summarize the survey by the next meeting
