Lee Elementary School Site Council
Abbreviated Form of Robert’s Rules of Order

1. To speak at a meeting, a person must be recognized by the chair. Only one person can be recognized at a time.
2. A main motion must be made and seconded before discussion can begin on any proposal for action.
3. Only three things can happen to a main motion: It may be amended, tabled, or either adopted or rejected.
   a. An amendment can be debated, amended itself, and finally adopted or rejected by a majority vote of those voting. If it is adopted, it becomes part of the main motion. If it is rejected, the debate returns to the main motion.
   b. A motion to table requires a majority vote of those voting. If a main motion is tabled, it cannot be brought up again at that meeting.
   c. The main motion (as amended) can be adopted, or rejected by a majority of those voting. Once the main motion has been voted upon, there can be no further discussion of it.
4. After sufficient debate has take place on an amendment or a main motion, anyone can “call the question” i.e. move to end debate and proceed immediately to a vote. This can be done either “informally” or “formally.”
   a. If the question is called “informally”, the chair asks if everyone is ready to vote. If there is not objection, an immediate vote is taken, with no debate allowed.
   b. If someone objects to ending the debate, an immediate vote with no discussion allowed is taken. If two-thirds of those voting wish to end the debate, then no more discussion is allowed. If less than two-thirds vote to end debate, then discussion continues until someone else “calls” the question.
5. A motion to adjourn a meeting can be made at any time. There is an immediate vote, with no debate allowed. If a majority of those voting wish to adjourn, then the meeting is adjourned. If less than a majority wish to adjourn, then the meeting continues.
